Informational Reports

1. RECEIVE INFORMATION REGARDING THE PILOT PROGRAM.

Judge Murphy shared information gathered by her office, including responses from the Texas Association of Counties (TAC) to follow-up questions submitted after their presentation to the Court on June 24th. She also provided data estimating how many current county employees might qualify for TAC's Health Benefits for Dependents Pilot Program and the associated cost, should the Court choose to participate.

After discussion, the Court agreed that there is still insufficient information to make a fully informed decision at this time. Instead, the focus over the coming year will be on educating employees about the benefits currently available. The Court agreed to table any decision regarding the pilot program until next year, provided it is still an option.
